Cross Roads Stock Horse Association (CRSHA) Release and Hold Harmless Agreement – Every Participant in the CRSHA shows shall read this notice before signing: No participant will be allowed to participate prior to signing. "Inherent risks of equine activities" shall mean those dangers or conditions which are an integral part of equine activities, including, but not limited to:

- The propensity of an equine to behave in ways that may result in injury, death, or loss to persons on or around the equine.
- The predictability of an equine's reaction to sounds, sudden movements, unfamiliar objects, or other animals.
- That there may be hazards including, but not limited to , surface or subsurface conditions.
- The possibility of a collision with another equine, another animal, a person, or an object.
- The potential of an equine activity participant to act in a negligent manner that may contribute to injury, death, or loss to the person of the participant, or to other persons, including, but not limited to failing to maintain control over an equine or failing to act within the ability of the participant.

Neither CRSHA, the Organizing committee of the show, officials, volunteers, members or agents shall in any way be liable for any accident, injury, damage, loss or for any matter that may happen to exhibitors, competitors, owners, agents, or to anyone on the grounds or to any animal or article brought to the grounds. It is to be understood and agreed that by making an entry to the CRSHA , all exhibitors, competitors, owners, agents, and representatives acknowledge that equestrian sports involve inherent risk and do hereby indemnify and hold harmless the CRSHA, directors, officers, members, and volunteers from and against any an all loss, costs, or expenses, or any claim thereof whatever nature arising or to arise for and on account, or by reason of participation.
